51. Read the story below and answer questions about it in full sentences.

Namazzi is a twelve year old girl. She is in primary seven at Desire Junior School. She comes from a humble background. She lives with her parents. She has two brothers and two sisters.

Namazzi likes her studies very much. Everyday, she wakes up very early in the morning to prepare and walk to school, two kilometers from home. When she gets to school, she attends all her lessons. She does all the exercises and corrections of questions she has not passed.

Although Namazzi does not pass exams very highly, her teachers like her for her discipline, commitment to do class work and engaging herself in other school activities. They know that she is able to get a first grade in her primary leaving examinations.

When school closes every evening, Namazzi walks quickly home.

The moment she reaches home, she sits down to do hand work. Some days she weaves mats, other days she kneats table cloths. Namazzi is so skilled at hand work that all her work comes out beautiful.

Every Saturday, Namazzi and her siblings take their products to Owino market. As soon as they arrive there, people buy the products within a short time. They collect a lot of money. Namazzi spends little part of money to buy some tomatoes and vegetables for home use.

When they reach home, they handover the rest of money to Mr. Tabu their father, on the second day of the week, he takes the money to the bank, saving it for future development.

Dear Sir,

RE: ROAD HUMPS

I am writing to request your office to work with the municipal authorities to construct road humps near our school gate.

We urgently need the humps due to increasing number of accidents at this spot

I believe that the humps will force the motorists and motorcyclists to slow down.

This will help to reduce the number of accidents.

Yours faithfully
